Commentary Critical and Explanatory on the Whole Bible. Mark 14:3-9. The supper and the anointing at Bethany six days before the Passover. The time of this part of the narrative is four days before what has just been related. Had it been part of the regular train of events which our Evangelist designed to record, he would probably have inserted it in its proper place, before the conspiracy of ...

I have found the Bethany Parallel Commentary of the New Testament to be a highly valuable study aid of the New Testament scriptures. I like the fact that 3 author groups are listed in a single volume as opposed to having three distinct volumes. In addition, there are many other notes and inserts from various other authors to assist in Bible study.

Matthew 26:6-13. When Jesus was in the house of Simon the leper — That is, who had been a leper, but, as seems highly probable, had been healed by Jesus. At least, it is not to be thought that he was now a leper, for in that case he would not have been suffered to live in a town, nor would any Jew have come to an entertainment in his house.
